COLTS AND ALCOS PLAY DOUBLE-HEADER TO-MORROW

CUBANS TO PLAY COLTS
IN FINAL GAME TO-DAYDICKEY RUDOLPH PROVES A VERITABLE STONE WALL

Postponed Contest and Field Sports to Be Staged at Broad Street Park at 3:45 o'clock.

ALCOS TO CLOSE LOCAL SEASON

Double-Header Scheduled With Ryanites for To-Morrow—Pieper and Sanderson Will Go on Mound for Inter-city Champions.

Rain caused the calling off of the field day sports and baseball game scheduled between the Long Branch Cuban team and the Colts, which was to have been staged at Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon.

When it was seen that a contest was impossible, Manager Ryan, for the Colts, and Montoto, for the Cubans, arranged to hold the same program this afternoon.

The field day games will start at 3:45 o'clock and will consist of throwing the ball, base running and several other athletic contests in which members of both teams will participate.

The Cuban players say that they have in their line-up two men who can throw the ball 150 feet and another who is standing at the home plate and in hitting fungo flies there are several that cannot be beaten.

At the first three games played the visitors have shown speed on the paths, there are a number of local fans who believe that in the Colts line-up there is not just speed, and the test around the bases will likely prove interesting.

The total proceeds of the afternoon will go to the Cubans, who are expected to do a large crowd with their own to witness the sport and the baseball game, which will start at 4:15.

Cubans Like Richmond.

The visitors seem to like Richmond and the owners have arranged here two contests, then another was set up, and agreed to be the third game, and most brilliant contest ever staged in this city. Acosta, the star of the Cubans, was beaten, and to get another chance at the Colts, Montoto set up a second, which was arranged.

Montoto stepped in and staged the afternoon, but the rain caused no let up for the fans.

It is thought the Cubans would not say who would win, but it is likely that Acosta will try to redeem himself and pitch again against the Colts. Ryan will not be able to stand for the honor of his team, and will take charge of the catching department himself.

Taking any view of the afternoon's sport, there will be something doing every minute from the time of the sundown. Ed Lewis, the wrestler, will act as referee and timekeeper in the field day sports.

Ales vs. Colts To-Morrow.
The Ales will play a double-header with the Colts to-morrow. This will be the last game of the season for the Ales. They have been practicing hard since the team has come to Washington to prepare themselves for this test with the second team of the Virginia State League.

It is doubtful just what the Ales will put up in a high-class exhibition of the national game, and the Ales fans confidently expect that they will take the best of the game, and the Giants score an easy victory. In fact, four balls on bails, two grounders and a double lead gave the Giants three runs in the fourth inning, putting the game on ice. After six more runs had been garnered over Douglass in the sixth and seventh, he was replaced by Higginson. The score:
